

ITALY AWAITS NEW PEACE PROPOSALS FROM LEAGUE OF NATIONS WHICH MAY FORM MINIMUM BASIS FOR DISCUSSION

Italian Spokesman Denies That Italy Has Made Any "Proposals" to League, Regarding Ethiopian Crisis — Abyssinia Accepts in Full the Five-Power Proposals

(By International News Service)

ROME, Italy, Sept. 23—In an atmosphere officially described as "calm," reported to be due to the personal intervention of King George of Great Britain and King Victor Emanuel of Italy, an official spokesman today declared Italy awaited new peace proposals from the League of Nations for settlement of the Ethiopian quarrel. "The doors are still open," the spokesman said. "We are waiting for fresh proposals from the League which may form a minimum basis for a discussion which the last proposals did not provide."

The proposals referred to were those of the committee of five, rejected flatly by the Italian cabinet on Saturday.

The Italian spokesman today denied officially that Italy had made any "proposals" to the League of Nations at Geneva yesterday regarding the Ethiopian crisis.

GENEVA, Sept. 23—Refusing to endorse Italy's demand for greatly increased concessions as the price of peace in Africa, the League of Nations five-power commission, at a meeting lasting less than one hour, today confirmed a complete breakdown in the Italo-Abyssinian conciliation attempt. Simultaneously Abyssinia scored an extra victory by accepting in full the five-power proposals of administrative and territorial adjustments.

ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 23—The Ethiopian government was highly pleased today by Premier Mussolini's rejection of the League of Nations commission's peace proposals which now have enabled Ethiopia to accept in principle what she could not accept in practice. Meanwhile, Emperor Haile Selassie has won a move in this chess game with Italy because the five-power plan to appoint a high commission here would have brought civil war if the Emperor acceded. Upon close examination it was seen the League committee really proposed serious inroads on Ethiopia's independence. Even if the Emperor had been inclined to accept a diminution of his sovereignty, which he was not, the great barons would have made it hazardous. Now, however, Mussolini has made it possible for Haile Selassie to agree to the proposals with certain stipulations protecting his throne, and the right to veto appointments of foreign advisors.

GENEVA, Sept. 23—Frank B. Kellogg, former United States Secretary of State and winner of the Nobel peace prize in 1929, today resigned his membership in the United States Court of International Justice. In a letter to the President of the Court, at The Hague, dated September 9th. Kellogg said he finds himself "compelled by circumstances" to cease attending sessions of the Court and to resign his Judgeship.

ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 23—Unconfirmed reports reached here today of disturbances at Gerlogubi, between the Ethiopian and native Italian Somaliland troops in which several were killed. The Somalis, according to reports, had deserted from the Italian side to serve Ethiopia some weeks ago but recently caused trouble. Ethiopia ordered them to give up their rifles and the Somalis refused, according to the report, and the clash ensued. Gerlogubi is in southeastern Ethiopia and not far from the Italian Somaliland border.

MORRISVILLE HIGH ENROLLMENT INCREASES

FEWER IN THE GRADES

MORRISVILLE, Sept. 23—Enrollment in the High School is about 25 more than last year while the elementary grades have about 25 less, according to a report read at the meeting of the Board of Education here. There is a total enrollment of 1297 with 626 in the high school and 671 in the grades. There are 85 pupils in the senior class or about 13 more than last year.

The Board elected Miss Betty Anderson, a graduate of Westminster College, a teacher in the commercial department in the high school to succeed Miss Rosanna Slack, resigned to take a place in the Philadelphia schools. Her salary will be $1200.

Announcement has been received announcing that the local school has again received the rating from the State of a classified six year junior-senior high school.

Dr. George Enion, school medical director, reported having examined all candidates for the football team and all beginners coming to school were examined for vaccination. There were several excluded but later vaccinated.

The Board has been considering the refinancing of the outstanding bonds at a lower rate of interest but it is believed this will be impossible because the bonds are not callable. The matter of penalties for delinquent taxes was discussed but it was decided not to take any action until information can be secured from the State Department. Announcement was made that an application has been made for the permit to hold school events in order to eliminate the State tax which is levied on all amusements. Affairs conducted by schools are exempt provided a permit is procured.

It was also announced that the age limit of children leaving school for work is raised from 16 to 18 years. This means that all boys or girls under 18 must receive a certificate from the supervising principal before they can procure employment in Pennsylvania.

The Misses Evelyn and Florence Smith entertained Miss Meriam Hutchinson, Torresdale, at tea on Friday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Webster entertained the Ladies' Aid of the Macalaster Memorial Church on Friday evening.

Farewell Party Tendered Here To The Misses Ross

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson, McKinley street, a surprise farewell party was held Saturday evening in honor of the Misses Bertha and Mary Ross, 2130 Wilson avenue, who will move to Philadelphia the first of October.

When the Misses Ross arrived, the guests were awaiting and a delightful evening was spent playing games, dancing and singing. The guests presented the Misses Ross with two bouquets of flowers. A lunch was served.

Those present: Misses Frances Shelly, Muriel Sheldon, Mary and Bertha Ross, Ruth Richardson, Messrs. Richard Hubbard, Joseph Richardson, William and Daniel Halpin.

MISS ETHEL ROBERTS IS BRIDE OF C. ROBINSON

The Rev. W. H. A. Williams
Officiated at Wedding
In Tullytown

RECEPTION OCCURS

TULLYTOWN, Sept. 23—A wedding was solemnized in Tullytown Methodist Episcopal Church Saturday at four o'clock, when Miss Ethel Mary Roberts, daughter of Burgess and Mrs. Harold E. Roberts, became the bride of Charles Joseph Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Robinson, Penn's Manor.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. H. A. Williams, pastor of the church, amidst a setting of ferns and palms. The bride wore a gown of white satin with a long tulle veil, cap effect. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and orchids. She was attended by Miss Dorothy Robinson, sister of the groom. Miss Robinson was attractive in a dress of peach color lace with brown accessories, and carried a bouquet of Joanna Hill roses. Norman Roberts, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Mrs. Roberts, mother of the bride, was gowned in green crepe with black accessories. The mother of the groom wore brown velvet.

The bride has been employed for the past five years in the office of the Thomas L. Leedom Company, Bristol. Mr. Robinson is employed with the Charles A. Warner Company as material inspector.

After a reception at the Washington Crossing Inn, the happy couple left for a motor trip through the New England States and parts of Canada.

The bride's traveling costume was a tan tweed suit with brown accessories. Upon their return they will make their home in Tullytown.

Wedding of Interest Is Performed at St. Ann's

The marriage of Miss Mary T. Conti, daughter of Samuel Conti, 358 Dorance street, to Peter Rosetty, 1069 Wood street, took place Sunday afternoon at three o'clock in St. Ann's Catholic Church, Pond and Dorance streets, with the Rev. Father Marcelino Romagnolo, officiating. Miss Frances Tamburella, Dorance street, organist of the church, played Lohengrin's Wedding March as the bridal party entered, and Miss Elizabeth Scordia, Dorance street, sang "I Love You Truly."

Miss Rose Conti, 358 Dorance street, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid; and the best man was Alexander Conti, 315 Dorance street, a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Rosetty was gowned in white satin made on form-fitting lines, the skirt ending in a train. The long sleeves were puffed at the shoulder, the square neckline in front was trimmed with wax rose-buds and a Queen Ann style collar. The bridal veil of tulle, edged with lace, was attached to a lace cap trimmed with orange blossoms and a face veil. She wore white slippers and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaid was attired in yellow satin fashioned on long close-fitting lines. She wore a satin jacket with three-quarter length sleeves puffed from the shoulder to the elbow. A rose satin hat, slippers and gloves, completed her outfit, and she carried a bouquet of roses.

The couple left last evening for a trip to New York and Greenwich, Conn. They will reside at 1909 Wood street.

COMING TERM OF SUPREME COURT SEEN AS LIKELY TO DECIDE ROOSEVELT RE-ELECTION

Eight "New Deal" Acts Are Up for Final
Rulings

ACTS UNDER FIRE

Appeals Cover Wide Range of Administration
Legislation

By William S. Neal
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23—(INS)—Determination of the whole future of the Roosevelt administration's "trial and error" program by the Supreme Court in an eight months' session from October 7 to June 1, 1935, is in prospect.

As preparations for the opening of the 146th year of the nation's high tribunal went forward today, eight legislative acts of the administration were under fire in the court. Others will reach the Court before June and the election campaign.

The appeals before the Court cover such a wide range that a sweeping series of adverse decisions on constitutionality of administration legislation might consign the whole program to the ash heap and have an important bearing in the Presidential campaign.

The outstanding administration case before the Court is constitutionality of the AAA and its $500,000,000 annual processing taxes. It is possible that the court may decide the case before Congress reconvenes on January 3rd.

A favorable decision, eagerly sought by the administration, admittedly would encourage the administration in its challenge to the so-called "orthodox" interpretations of the Constitution.

Should the Court hold the AAA unconstitutional and force the refund of hundreds of millions of processing taxes, the entire farm relief scheme of the administration would be undone and Congress would be faced with the task of devising a substitute.

Held unconstitutional by the First Circuit Court of Appeals in Boston as an effort on the part of the federal government to regulate intrastate and local business, the processing tax case presents many questions similar to those in the Schechter "sick chicken" NRA case. Some lawyers believe that the NRA decision presages doom of the AAA.

Other Roosevelt administration acts under fire include:

TVA. Group of stockholders of Alabama Power Co. challenge right of federal government to set up electric power plants for the alleged purpose of "destroying" private business.

Slum Clearance. Government forced to appeal from lower court decisions holding that it lacks power to

BRISTOL BOY CROWNED BURLINGTON CHAMPION

Nelson Green Wins Over
Herbert Lawrence, of Bristol, for Net Title

FIVE SETS REQUIRED

In a gruelling tennis match, replete with brilliant and spectacular plays, which required five sets to decide, Nelson Green, defeated his friend, Herbert Lawrence, on Saturday afternoon in the finals of the Burlington Tennis Tournament by the score, 3-6, 6-0, 8-10, 6-2, 7-5. This is the third time that Green and Lawrence have played against each other in final matches this summer, and each time Green has won.

Both boys were slightly injured during the match. Green in reaching for one of Lawrence's drives, slipped and fell, slightly spraining his wrist, which had been broken in an automobile accident a few years ago. In the last game with the score at match point in favor of Green, Lawrence in reaching for a ball in the extreme corner of the court, lost his balance and fell heavily to the ground, sustaining a laceration of his right arm below the elbow.

Notwithstanding their injuries, the two Bristol aces, immediately following their match in the finals of the singles tournament, played in the doubles finals, winning in three straight sets, 6-3, 6-0, 6-3.

The young men were to have played in the finals of the Bristol tournament yesterday afternoon, but owing to their injuries the match was postponed until next Saturday afternoon.

APPENDIX REMOVED

John Simon, 229 Wood street, had his appendix removed at the Harriman Hospital, yesterday.

EAR IS INJURED

While at work on a dredge in the river, Joseph Serrabelli, South Langhorne, was struck on the ear when a chain broke. The ear was deeply lacerated, and Serrabelli was thrown against some shafting. Several stitches were taken in the wound, and the man is remaining at the institution for a time.

14 INSTITUTIONS ARE LOCATED NEAR PHILA.

Travelers From Western Part of State Will Use
Route 30

A PLEASANT TOUR

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23—No less than fourteen educational institutions are located in or near Philadelphia and travelers from western Pennsylvania will find best access via Route 30. From the northwest motorists may select either Route 6 through Warren, Coudersport and Wellsboro; or Routes 120 and 229 through Renovo and Lock Haven to Williamsport. In either event Route 11 leads to Northumberland and on to Harrisburg, being identical in this stretch with Route 11. From Harrisburg the traveler has the choice of Route 5 via Ephrata and Downingtown or Route 422 via Lebanon, Reading and Norristown. Perhaps the best known of Philadelphia's seats of higher learning is the University of Pennsylvania with its many professional, graduate and undergraduate schools. This institution dates its history from 1740, a charitable school founded in that year having been taken over in 1749 by a Board of Trustees organized by Benjamin Franklin, and a charter issued in 1753 to "The Academy and Charitable School in the Province of Pennsylvania." With the second charter in 1755 the name was changed to "The College and Academy of Philadelphia," but during the dark days of the Revolution the charter was lost, the college's rights and properties were conferred upon a new institution—"The University of the State of Pennsylvania." The new institution thus achieved the distinction of being the first center of learning in America to bear the name "university."

In 1789 the charter was restored to "The College of Philadelphia" and in 1791 this title and "The University of the State of Pennsylvania" were joined under the present corporate title "The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania."

Vincenzo Cordisco
Dies in Norristown

Vincenzo Cordisco, husband of Angelina Cordisco, died on Saturday at Norristown. Besides his wife he is survived by two sons and a daughter, Philip, John and Mrs. Mary Cordisco, of Bristol.

Relatives and friends are invited to the funeral services from the late residence, 925 Wood street, on Tuesday morning at nine o'clock. High Mass in St. Ann's Church at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in St. Mark's Cemetery under the direction of J. M. Galzerano.

"The Irish In Us" Has
James Cagney in Lead

Everyone who goes to the movies—and everyone does—knows that James Cagney, Pat O'Brien and Frank McHugh would make any picture interesting.

When they are given a real vehicle such as "The Irish In Us" which has its local premiere at the Grand Theatre tonight, they rise to even new heights.

Because it is a picture of Irish life in New York, it jumps from tears to laughter, from bitter family brawls to evidences of brotherly love, from romance to drama, from thrilling action to robust humor.

Mary Gordon, as the Irish mother of the three stars, is the middle-aged unknown who, a year ago, was cooking in a Hollywood studio restaurant, and who had occasionally been used as an extra in the movies.

The love interest centers around Olivia de Havilland, a beautiful young girl discovered by Max Reinhardt who cast her for a leading role in "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

400,000 Miners On Strike

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23—Four hundred thousand bituminous coal miners were under strike orders today. An order to quit the mines last midnight was sent out to all union locals by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers when the long conferences here between representatives and the operators of the union failed to reach an agreement on a new working contract.

This was the situation that confronted President Roosevelt when he returned here this morning from Hyde Park. Both sides are looking to him to lead the way to an amicable settlement and to end the strike. He is expected to call representatives of both groups before him during the day. The present working contract of the miners expired last midnight after it had been extended five times since March 31st on the personal appeal of Mr. Roosevelt. The union is demanding a 10 per cent wage increase and shorter hours.

Penna. Miners Go Out

Pittsburgh, Sept. 23—Calmly and peacefully thousands of miners today laid down their tools in the vast bituminous regions of western Pennsylvania and West Virginia in accordance with a strike order issued by leaders in an effort to reach an agreement with operators on a new wage scale. Most of the region's producers, lead by the Pittsburgh Coal Company, issued orders last Saturday to keep the mines closed today. The miners and their families accepted the no work order with the greatest calm, no trouble was anticipated unless an attempt is made to work some of the mines. A six to eight weeks' supply of coal has been stored above ground and most of the larger operators were prepared to keep their workings closed for a month or more before considering operations with non-union men.

WESLEY AND DONAHUE IN FEATURE BOUT HERE

Grudge Fight Between Flowers and Sherman Also is Eagerly Awaited

PLAN ELEVEN BOUTS

The complete boxing card scheduled for the amateur boxing bouts, tonight, in the St. Ann's Arena, Wood street, has been announced by Matchmaker Mickey Gordon. Eleven bouts will be held, all sanctioned by the Middle Atlantic district of the A. A. U.

The feature bout of the evening will be between Eli Wesley, of the East Side Club, national amateur welterweight champion and Richard Donahue, of the Arena, Philadelphia. These boys have fought before with Wesley being declared the winner.

The local fans are also fortunate in witnessing a "grudge" fight between Walter Flowers, of East Side, and John Sherman, of the West Side Club. Sherman and Flowers have been enemies for quite some time but no matchmaker has succeeded in bringing them together until Mickey Gordon did the trick.

Two rematches are also on the card. Clarence Jenkins, East Side, who dropped the decision to Joie Roe, Bristol, last Monday night, requested the A. A. U. to give him a return match with the Bristol battler and this was granted with the permission of Gordon. The other return fight is that between Paul Jobson and Walter Undercoffer. Several weeks ago these two youngsters stood in the ring and pounded each other unmercifully for three rounds. In the end with both boys weary on their feet, the nod was given to Undercoffer.

"Lenny" Dever, Catholic Boys Club, will come back into the ring after a few months' lay-off. Dever is in the pink of condition and will meet William Harvey, of the East Side Club, in a three-rounder. Dever has been stopped in his two fights here while it is Harvey's first appearance here, he having devoted his fighting to Philadelphia clubs.

Fred Spino, Arena A. C., will have his hands full in his contest with Chet Castor, St. Ann's. Castor is out to redeem himself after losing two close
